Rooms and Rates

The Great House

The five second floor rooms of the main house all feature Kakelugns, private bathrooms, and individually appointed furnishings, many dating from the early 1900's.

The Captain's Quarters

Recall the bygone days of a British officer's club in this handsomely appointed room of dark woods featuring a king-size cherrywood sleigh bed, refrigerated wet bar, Kakelugn, private balcony, and a two person whirlpool. This is an ideal room for intimate entertaining. - $210

The Larkspur

This large room is full of wonderful morning sun and soothing shades of blue and pink. The queen-size pine four-poster bed, Kakelugn, and comfy chairs make this the perfect room for reading, relaxing and romance. - $185

The Chardonnay

The Chardonnay draws its name from the grape clusters on the Kakelugn, antique maple dresser and on the original 1930's beds. The three-quarter size beds may be joined to create an oversized king in this spacious room. - $185

The Dandelion

Also drawing inspiration from the motif on its Kakelugn, the Dandelion revolves around its large king-size bed and antique hooked rug. Stepping into the room is just like waking up on a spring morning. - $185

The Sandpiper

In this corner room overlooking the garden, the subtle shades of peach dance and come alive in the afternoon light. From your king-size iron bed enjoy the fire's glow radiating from the Kakelugn. - $185

The Garden View Suite

Relax in the privacy of this third floor suite complete with woodburning fireplace, cable T.V. & V.C.R., and kitchen. Retreat to the cozy bedroom with queen-size tapestry bed or soak away stress in the skylit Jacuzzi tub. - $230

The Pier House

Just across the flag stoned courtyard from the Great House, The Pier House offers six radiant rooms, all with Kakelugns, private bathrooms, and their own balcony or porch.

Idylls of An Author

This suite is the perfect spot to begin that long delayed novel or bring your journal up to date. It offers a bedroom with a queen-size bed and a connecting sunroom with all the privacy a writer could ask for. After a hard day's writing, relax by your Kakelugn and savor the delights of this lovely retreat. - $185

Whisperwood

Let the warmth of the Kakelugn and Whisperwood's soft natural shades of terra cotta soothe you. Awaken in your king-size bed and open your porch door to the sounds of birds chirping and views of the courtyard and hammock. This is the ideal place for a relaxing holiday. - $185

The Beachcomber

By day, you'll enjoy the nearness of the beach and the front porch overlooking our English Garden. By night, the comfortable queen-size rattan bed, the warmth of the Kakelugn, and the sound of the waves lapping on the shore will carry you off to dreamland. - $185

Madeleine's Room

This room, with its queen-size pine sleigh bed, is designed in relaxing hues of blue-gray and mauve complementing the Kakelugn. Its most special feature is the private balcony complete with inviting chaise lounges...the world is yours from this second floor vantage point. - $185

Room With A View

And what a view of the courtyard you'll have from your magnificent corner balcony and reclining lounges. The king-size bed in this delightful, crisply appointed room offers a commanding view from the corner Kakelugn to its French doors. - $185

The Lakeside

The ideal visit begins with afternoon cocktails on your balcony, then adjourn to the wicker furnishings and Kakelugn in your room. The queen-size bed beckons impromptu naps refreshing you for the evening ahead. - $185

The Cottage of the Four Seasons

Seasons are an integral part of life in Michigan. In few other states are the changes so pronounced. Celebrating that diversity, the four rooms in The Cottage offer a glimpse of Michigan throughout the year. All rooms feature queen-size beds and private bathrooms. You'll enjoy the large deck off the entrance which leads right to the outdoor hot tub.

Fall

Our Fall room delights in the riches of the earth with a dramatic pine four-poster bed entwined with grape vines. The rustic charms of Michigan in Autumn are captured in the Grandma Moses prints and the crafted wood furniture. - $155

Winter

The romance of winter in a Michigan cottage is evident in this cozy setting. Quiet snowfalls and thoughts of Hemingway's Nick Adams stories are ideal companions for the room's quaint wood furnishings and jewel tones. - $155

Spring

Inspired by a favored friend's spring parlour, this room, completed in subtle shades of lavender, is reminiscent of cool evenings spent on a special front porch after the first glorious days of spring. From the white wicker chairs to the proudly displayed linens, the room transports you to your favorite springs of years gone by. - $155

Summer

Michigan explodes with beams of inspired color in the summer and so does this sunny room. From your queen-size bannister bed the sounds of bird-filled trees awaken you in the morning and a walk along the beach is just steps away. - $155
